Biography:

Born and raised in Trani, Puglia, Vittorio Franzese received a classical education and joined the Law Faculty at the University of Bari in 2007. He addressed his studies towards the corporate law and international law fields, and graduated in 2012 scoring 110/110 cum laude.

After the training period he got a Corporate Law Postgraduate Masters at "Il Sole 24 Ore Business School" in Rome, and right after completing it, in January 2015, he joined in the Beijing's office of the American firm "Carroll Burdick & McDonough" (later "Squire Patton Boggs") where he worked as associate until the end of 2016, and gained a relevant international experience assisting clients in Intellectual Property-related cases. He became a qualified lawyer in October 2015 and was speaker at the Luxury Law Summit in London in May 2016. From January 2017 he is part of a team of experienced lawyers at GWA Greatway Advisory in Shanghai.
