Company Information

Company Name: The Accredited Italian Embassy School in Beijing

Company Description:

The Italian Embassy School of Beijing is the first accredited Italian school in all Eastern Asia. The School is part of the network of the 43 Italian schools accredited by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation all around the world. Established in 2015 and located within the San Li Tun Diplomatic Residence Compound, the Accredited Italian Embassy School of Beijing is a not-for-profit School first aimed at serving Italians dwelling in Beijing.

The School is cooperating directly with Reggio Children, the well-known Italian educational institution, inspiring schools in more than 140 countries.

The values espoused by the School reflects the most advanced studies in the field of pedagogy in Italy: tradition, innovation and continuous research in education, psychology and neuroscience.

On the basis of these principles, the School chose to apply the Reggio Emilia Approach to education. Teachers follow a continuous training, both in Italy and China, thanks to cooperation with leading experts in education.

The School offers Italian and English bilingual curriculum, integrated with Chinese language and culture.

For the 2019-2020 school year, the School has activated preschool and primary (from first to fifth grade) sections, for a total of about 100 pupils enrolled. Beijing being a very international city, the pupils count up to eighteen different nationalities.

From the footsteps of the Accredited Italian Embassy School in Beijing, the Italian International Kindergarten in Hong Kong (www.iikg.edu.hk) is starting its operations in September 2019.
