Candidacy for Coordinator of the China-Italy Young Professional Network

I am a Sino-Italian working and living in Beijing. I grew in an international environment which gave me the opportunity to learn both cultures, and to be fluent in Italian, Chinese and English. I consider myself a team-player and easy-going person that likes to share thoughts and be part of a community.

In this Network, I will dedicate my time and effort in providing professional skills, cultural thoughts, business insights, and opportunities for those who are enthusiastic of the two countries and to better understand both nations.

I believe, with my diverse background, professional skills and local resource from the point of view of culture, business and connections can benefit our group and make me qualified for the position of Coordinator of the China-Italy Young Professional Network.
