

励青 Levi LI

贝克休斯中国区政府关系及业务战略发展总监

Baker Hughes China Gov't Relations & Strategic Partnership Leader

Levi is the Baker Hughes China Gov't Relations & Strategic Partnership Leader, who is responsible for strengthening government relationship and promoting the establishment and implementation of Baker Hughes' energy transition strategy in China.

Levi has 13 years working experience in GE during 2004 to 2017 where he took variety of commercial roles including pricing, marketing, channel, sales and service in lighting, industrial solutions and power service businesses. He was 2009 ECLP graduate. After he left GE, Levi joined Hitachi Metals to develop sales strategy of vehicle electrification and participated the counseling of apple datacenter development afterwards. His most recent job was senior commercial leader in Hanergy mobile energy group. Levi graduated from Sichuan university in 1997 with holding the bachelor degree of economics.