About Panda d'Oro

Established in 2010, Panda d'Oro is the highest award recognized by the China-Italy Chamber of Commerce (CICC) to those Companies, Members of CICC, and Friends of CICC, whose business strategies have seized opportunities and achieved remarkable results during the previous year, strengthening the development of business relationships between Italy and China.

The event gathers up to five hundred guests among the Sino-Italian business community, representatives from Italian and Chinese authorities, and the media. During the event, the CICC recognizes and awards on stage the Italian companies that have distinguished themselves during the previous year for investment, growth, resilience, and innovation on Chinese territory .

This year, a total of ten prizes shall be awarded to the candidate companies. Each prize is going to be awarded to one Italian company, as a member of the China-Italy Chamber of Commerce, for a total of nine prizes. One final award will be presented to a Chinese company that has best contributed to favorable economic growth for both countries.
